

Senator Lorimer is solemnly warning the voters of Illinois that such progressive measures as initiative, referendum and recall would destroy our revered political institutions and hand the distracted country over to anarchy and chaos.

This naturally reminds us of a convention of fruit growers at which a pest that was ravaging the orchards was discussed. The discussion proceeded in lugubrious tones until a famous peach grower, J. H. Hale, enlivened it with the following observation:

"Thunder! The San Jose scale is the best thing that ever happened to you. It compels you to spray your orchards, as you should have done long ago."

To the junior Senator from Illinois, more than to any other one person, the country is indebted for the great progress made toward the direct election of Senators by the people; and he ranks high in the devoted little band that has been of incalculable service in forwarding initiative, referendum and the whole movement for more democratic government. Illinois used to be taunted with having contributed very little to important political movements since the Civil War; but she can now claim to have assisted mightily in setting up a general spraying of political orchards.—Saturday Evening Post

"Title Talks"

The Business of Abstracting

The business of Abstracting titles is of comparatively recent growth. As lands increase in value, the need of title security becomes more and more imperative.

It is just as sensible to safeguard the title to a thousand dollar vacant lot or to any other property, as it is to keep your thousand dollar bond under lock and key.

PROTECTION IN EITHER CASE IS THE THING SOUGHT.

Good titles make real estate as negotiable as stocks and bonds.

There is no way of being sure about the title except by the help of an abstract by a reliable company.
